Armitage Arts: Summer City in a Garden is part of a community arts initiative along W. Armitage Ave. Other Armitage Arts programs have included the 2014 and 2015 Armitage Arts Festivals, as well as events at the Segundo Ruiz Belvis Cultural Center, Rosa's Lounge and Weegee's Lounge.

Thanks to our audience; Mozart Park for hosting Armitage Arts: Summer City in a Garden; the artists, musicians, writers and sound artists who contributed their talents to this event; Rich Washam, Andrew Evans and Jamarri Nix for helping out today; and the Chicago Park District and Poets & Writers for providing funding to help make this possible.

This program is presented as part of the Chicago Park District's Night Out in the Parks with the support of Mayor Rahm Emanuel. Arts programming in neighborhoods across the city advances the goals of the Chicago Park District and the Chicago Cultural Plan. "Urbs in Horto" ("City in a Garden"), which is Chicago's Latin motto, is part of the inspiration for this event's title.

Funding for this program is also being provided by Poets & Writers. Support for Readings & Workshops events in Chicago is provided by an endowment established with generous contributions from the Poets & Writers Board of Directors and others. Additional support comes from the Friends of Poets & Writers.
